

Monday, November 16, 2015

REQUEST FOR APPLICATIONS

TCC is seeking Applicants for Health Policy Research Projects

The Morehouse School of Medicine Transdisciplinary Collaborative Center (TCC) for Health Disparities Research (U54MD008173) is an institution-wide health policy research center (U54) funded by the National Institute of Health (NIH), National Institute on Minority Health and Health Disparities (NIMHD).

TCC is currently soliciting applications for research pilot projects that align with our overarching goal; to critically examine and address health policy issues to advance health equity and eliminate health disparities.

Eligibility is open to academic faculty investigators and non-academic organizations operating in states within HHS Region VI (Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Tennessee). Applicants operating CDC REHDAI coalition member states (Maryland, Minnesota, Missouri, Oregon, and Texas) may also apply.

Pilot Project Overview Webinar: Tuesday, December 1, 2015
Letters of Intent (LOI) deadline: Monday, December 21, 2015
Final Application Deadline: Monday, February 1, 2016

Click here to view the Request for Applications \(RFA\)

To view application materials, resources, and to submit applications please visit the TCC Pilot Project Program Portal at: <http://www.msmtcc.org/pilotproject>.

For more information please visit the TCC Pilot Project Portal at <http://www.msmtcc.org/pilotproject>. You may also contact TCC Program Manager Divine Offoegbu, DrPH, MPH \(404\) 752-1933, or via e-mail at doffoegbu@msm.edu.

The project described is supported by the National Institute on Minority Health and Health Disparities (NIMHD) Grant Number U54MD008173, a component of the National Institutes of Health (NIH) and its contents are solely the responsibility of the authors and do not necessarily represent the official views of NIMHD or NIH.